Scan here to go to the BHP Billiton Limited mobile voting website via Investor Vote

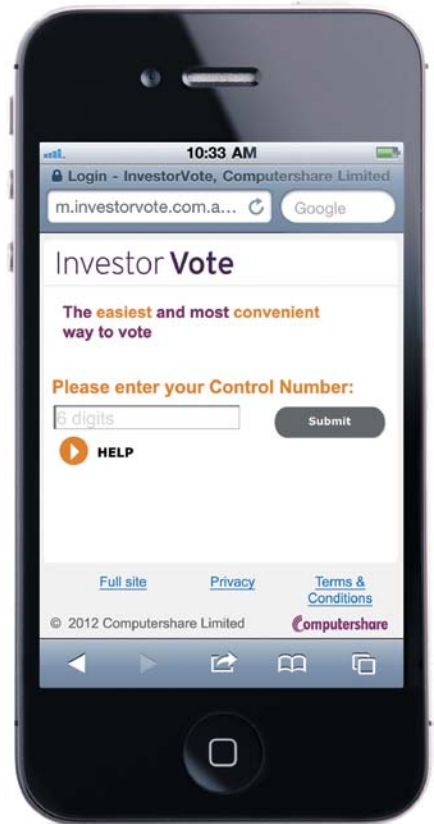

You now have the option to lodge proxies for the BHP Billiton Limited 2012 Annual General Meeting electronically via our new mobile voting website, giving you the flexibility to vote when and where it suits you.

The mobile voting website is designed specifically for smartphones. It can be accessed by scanning the QR code* with your smartphone or by logging on to www.investorvote.com.au from your smartphone.

You will need the control number, your Holder Identification Number or Security Reference Number and the postcode (or country for overseas shareholders) for your shareholding to access the website. You can find these details printed on your enclosed proxy form.

Proxies must be lodged by 10.30am (Sydney time) on 27 November 2012.

* To scan the QR code above, you will need to have already downloaded a free QR code reader application to your smartphone.
