Personal Details User Guide

The accompanying form will have the 4 boxes below which relate to the information in the tables on page 2 of this User Guide. The example below shows which information goes in which box on the form.

If you do not provide the details required we may not be able to carry out your transaction request as regulation requires us to collect them.

EXAMPLE ONLY! Please see the tables over the page to find the details that apply to your nationality:

Nationality	National ID or LEI
G	B	R	N	J	5	4
					9	9
					1	R

This is the unique 3 digit Nationality Code

Regulation requires us to collect the highest priority ID type that you possess. The relevant National IDs and related priority for your country are shown in the appropriate table on the next page.

If you provide an ID which is not the highest priority ID listed, then you are certifying that you are supplying the highest priority ID in your possession.

For some countries we are allowed to create a 'Computershare Generated' ID. If you require us to generate an ID for you please leave the 'National ID' box blank and fill in the other 3 boxes.

For corporate bodies, such as solicitors, banks and building societies, we only require the Legal Entity Identifier (LEI.) The other boxes may remain blank. If you are unsure if you're eligible for an LEI or require more information on applying for one, please visit www.gleif.org

Enter the appropriate National ID Type code:

- NIDN – National ID
- CCPT – Passport No.
- CONCAT – Computershare Generated ID

Enter your date of birth in DD/MM/YYYY format

Why do I need to provide these details?

Under the Markets in Financial Instruments Regulations we need to report the details of anyone wishing to sell shares or other securities.

Who needs to provide their details?

We DO need details for:

- All individuals on the account including: > Joint Holders; > Deceased Holders;
- > Anyone instructing under a Power of Attorney

We DO NOT need details for:

- Executors of a deceased estate;
- Any Attorneys not requesting the sale

What if I have Multiple Nationalities?

If you have Multiple Nationalities, please refer to the rules below

Multiple Nationalities and only one is European – Please provide details for the European nationality.

Multiple European Nationalities – Please provide details for whichever country comes first on the 'European Countries' table. For example, if you are a national of Spain and Estonia, you should supply the Nationality Country Code for Estonia because it appears before Spain in the list.

Multiple non-European Nationalities - Please provide details for whichever country comes first on the 'Non-European Countries' table. For example, if you are a national of Australia and Aruba, you should supply the Nationality Country Code for Australia because it appears before Aruba in the list.
